

I am opposed to relaxing the regulations on the number of media outlets that can be owned by any one corporation. This will have adverse effects on media diversity and continue the process of creating ever larger media monopolies that control the information received by the public.